

SOUNDSWELL 70's POP TRIVIA

www.soundswell.co.uk

You should be able to answer these with flare!

1	What was Johnny Rotten's real surname?
2	Name Ian Dury's last and most famous backing band.
3	The Police had two No.1 Hits in 1979, but who was their drummer?
4	What year was Bohemian Rhapsody top of the charts for Queen?
5	What year did Ron Wood join the Stones and tour the States with them ?
6	Who was Hot Chocolate's front man?
7	What was Abba's first No.1 hit?
8	Bob Plant, Jim Page, J P Jones, and the drummer was?
9	Janice Joplin and Jimi Hendrix died in the same year. Which year?
10	Hendrix's only No.1 hit happened two months after his death. The title?
11	Which British band had six No.1 hits between Nov. 71 and Jan 74?
12	Status Quo had dozens of hits but only one topped the charts. Which?
13	Who played guitar and keyboards on Black Sabbath's 'Paranoid' album?
14	This was a hit for the Bee Gees in 79, and then for Steps in 99. What?
15	Who hit the charts with 'Mama Told Me Not To Come' in the seventies?
16	An American star had a hit in '72 with 'I Can See Clearly Now'. Who?
17	Who was Deep Purple's keyboard player?
18	In February '76 they had a hit about December '63. Who?
19	Originally Bon Scott was lead vocal, now it's Brian Johnson. What band?
20	In '77 Stevie Wonder had two No.1 hits. 'Sir Duke' was one, the other?	